

Positive values indicate that prior correction reduces the absolute error.