

Negative values indicate that prior correction reduces the absolute error.